POPE FRANCIS PRAYER FOR APRIL 2024

For the role of women

We pray that the dignity and immense value of women be recognized in every culture, and for the end of discrimination that they experience in different parts of the world.

"WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS"

VOCATION VIEW- EASTER: "This is World Day of Prayer for Vocations. The world needs worthy leaders, Good Shepherds of the 21st Century, caring unselfishly for the needs of God's people. Please, pray for Vocations. Alleluia!

CREATIVITY & SPIRITUALITY: Exploring the depth and richness of the movement of the Sacred in our lives like leaves in a stream. We will reflect with scripture and our life experiences, using acrylic paints, canvas, board and leaves. On Sunday 28th April at House of Prayer, Thomas Street. MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS FOR THE 61ST WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Dear Brothers and Sisters!
Each year, the World Day of Prayer for Vocations invites us to reflect on the precious gift of the Lord's call to each of us, as members of His faithful pilgrim people, to participate in His loving plan and to embody the beauty of the Gospel in different states of life. Hearing that divine call, which is far from being an imposed duty – even in the name of a religious ideal – is the surest way for us to fulfil our deepest desire for happiness. Our life finds fulfilment when we discover who we are, what our gifts are, where we can make them bear fruit, and what path we can follow in order to become signs and instruments of love, generous acceptance, beauty and peace, wherever we find ourselves. This day, then, is always a good occasion to recall with gratitude to the Lord the faithful, persevering and frequently hidden efforts of all those who have responded to a call that embraces their entire existence. I think of mothers and fathers who do not think first of themselves or follow fleeting fads of the moment, but shape their lives through relationships marked by love and graciousness, openness to the gift of life and commitment to their children and their growth in maturity. I think of all those who carry out their work in a spirit of cooperation with others, and those who strive in various ways to build a more just world, a more solidary economy, a more equitable social policy and a more humane society. In a word, of all those men and women of good will who devote their lives to working for the common good. I think too of all those consecrated men and women who offer their lives to the Lord in the silence of prayer and in apostolic activity, sometimes on the fringes of society, tirelessly and creatively exercising their charism by serving those around them. And I think of all those who have accepted God's call to the ordained priesthood, devoting themselves to the preaching of the Gospel, breaking open their own lives, together with the bread of the Eucharist, for their brothers and sisters, sowing seeds of hope and revealing to all the beauty of God's kingdom. To young people, and especially those who feel distant or uncertain about the Church, I want to say this: Let Jesus draw you to himself; bring Him your important questions by reading the Gospels; let Him challenge you by His presence, which always provokes in us a healthy crisis. More than anyone else, Jesus respects our freedom. He does not impose, but proposes. Make room for Him and you will find the way to happiness by following Him, and should He ask it of you, by giving yourself completely to Him.

Rome, Saint John Lateran, 21st April 2024 Fourth Sunday of Easter. FRANCIS
